RE: Cathlamet Yacht Club Reciprocity

Greetings:

The lower Columbia River has a new yacht club! CATHLAMET YACHT CLUB is located 26 miles upriver from the Columbia Bar at Elochoman Marina in Cathlamet, Washington. Many of our members have enjoyed your hospitality as members of other yacht clubs in year's past, and we would like to extend an invitation to your members to visit us through reciprocal privileges as follows:

- CYC will extend one night's moorage on a first come, first serve basis.
- Visiting vessel is allowed to use CYC's one night moorage once every two weeks.
- Visiting vessels who wish to use electricity will be required to make payment directly to the Port at the time of registration for such hookup.
- Guests shall abide by all mooring basin rules and regulations.
- Visiting members must fly their burgees and show their current membership card to the Port at the time of registration.

This reciprocal agreement, if accepted, will remain until changed or revoked.

Cathlamet is a very friendly small town with full grocery, fuel, liquor, hardware and other services within easy walking distance of the marina. There are sightseeing opportunities and numerous cruising possibilities close by.

On behalf of our Commodore, Chuck Norton, I'd like to welcome your club and include you in our reciprocal roster. When questions occur, I'm available by email (hinshawfamily@yahoo.com) and/or phone (970-218-5853). I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

John Hinshaw
Chairman, Reciprocity
