GENERAL INFORMATION ENCLOSURE HIY&GC 2010 RECIPROCAL MOORAGE

The homeport of HIY&GC is on the island locally known as Hat Island, a few minutes northwest of Port Gardner at Everett. However, the proper name...as shown on your chart...is Gedney Island. This is brought to your attention so we are not mistaken for Hat Island near Anacortes, WA.

Island amenities beyond the marina are limited to property owners and their guests per the covenants of the Hat Island Community Association. With advanced notice via the Harbormaster, our officers/members will do our utmost to personally sponsor your boating party. We hope you enjoy your stay.

For your information the following applies:

- Reservations are strongly recommended
- Reciprocal is not available on Holiday weekends.
- Reciprocal moorage is limited to 40 feet.
- Boats over 40 feet wishing to use reciprocal need to pay $1.00 per foot for each additional foot over 40.
- Length of stay is limited to 48 hours ANNUALLY per boat/member.
- We have no fresh water on the dock or garbage facilities - all garbage must be taken with you.
- 30 Amp power is available for a rate of $4.00 per day.

As a Reciprocal guest (with member escort) you do have access to:

- Our club house (weekends are best).
- The club house has ice for $1/bag, kitchen facilities, rest rooms, and showers.
- A nine-hole golf course – for an additional cost inquire with Harbormaster
- A tennis court – ¼ mile walk.

Harbormaster Requests:

- Please fly your burgee / Officers Flag.
- Notify the Harbormaster of your intent to enter the marina by calling by calling the Harbormaster on 360-444-6656. The Harbormaster is available all year.
- Directions of the Harbormaster are final.
- Please register and pay for power upon arrival
