The LUR

Volume N Issue 5
May 2011

“Wax on wax off” It is now time to start making our boats shine after this long winter. Robert has been much busier than I have getting the boat ready for the summer cruising season. I do help when the time allows. He is doing a super job and the boat is looking better than when we purchased it. There is always the preventative maintenance that needs done, so one does not get the famous Stiff Rope award.

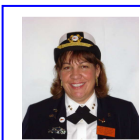

“Just planting the seed about joining the Viking Board” Elections will be here before we know it. So think what an asset YOU could be to continuing making the Viking Yacht Club the best club in the Puget Sound. As Uncle Sam says, WE NEED YOU!

The Cruise Captains for all the upcoming cruises are hard at work putting the final touches on a fun filled summer with Fellow Vikings. Memorial Weekend and Oyster Feed is a do not miss function. This will be one Cruise you will want to plan on attending! Please see attached flyer for all the information.

Special Thanks to all Board Members for doing a Fantastic job helping the Viking Club have a Super Fun 2011 Cruising Season.

SUNSHINE

Live well, love much, and laugh often

After two months in the southland, Sunshine has returned to the Northwest—literally and figuratively. While I was away, I learned that Donna Davidson and Susie Johnson both had surgery. Both are recovered and doing well. In addition, Ed Johnson’s knee surgery was so successful he was able to go back to work, albeit in a different capacity. Way to go, Ed!

Stay well, Vikings, and enjoy the sunny weather.

The Sunshine is here! Let us hope it stays around for a while. It would be great for all the boaters, while enjoying the gorgeous Puget Sound waters. Boating is the only way to live.

Next weekend, May 7th is Seattle Opening Day would love to see everyone support our Commodore and all the festivities and the parade. It is just so much fun to be in the parade and to visit Seattle. The whole experience is memorable.

There are quite a few cruises coming up. Would like everyone to be there to enjoy all the festivities that are being planned, they are always a lot of fun besides you may get to enjoy some sunshine along the way. Mark on your calendars for our "Poker Riding the Waves"

Better wash the boat and get ready for the season. Change your oil! And any other maintenance that you need to do to insure fun filled cruising without issues.

July 30th will be the Viking Yacht Club Poker Run! More detailed flyer coming soon! Plan ahead for the fun filled day!

From The Rear Commodore

Greetings to all Vikings! The cruising season is about to get into full swing with some fun cruises in the near future.

First on deck will be the Memorial Day cruise to Port Orchard from May 27th to the 30th. Fun activities are planned for the weekend. One important item I need to know is what you want to eat so that we can reduce waste and still provide enough of everything. We will be providing clams, oysters and chicken. Please let me know your preferences ASAP so we can plan accordingly. (253)732-2018 or seiserdf@hotmail.com.

The golf cruise will be June 17th to the 19th at Arabella's and fun activities are planned. Please make note of an important message from Arabella's. If you do not check in on Friday, you will NOT be able to check in until after 1:00 PM on Saturday. The reason is because Arabella's checkout time is 1:00 PM and they expect the weekend to be very busy. Green fees at Madrona are $25, including cart. We will play nine holes and the first tee time is at 10:00 AM on Saturday. A fun time planned for all including non-golfers. See you there!

Rear Commodore Dave

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

Do not miss these important events!

- Seattle Opening Day @ Seattle Yacht Club - May 7th
- South Sound Opening Day @ DMYC - May 14th
- VYC Memorial Cruise @ Port Orchard May 27th-30th

FROM THE JUNIOR PAST COMMODORE

Family of the Year was a hoot! Steve and Pam had yummy food and many fun things for all of us to do. I am sure Bob and Pam had a great time with all their family there to enjoy the event.

Next, we have Opening Day on May 7th. For those of you that have not been up to Seattle for this, you are missing a great time! Followed by Memorial Day at Port Orchard, we still have room for two more boats if you have not reserved yet. Carla and I have a fun filled afternoon and evening planned Saturday with Bingo and Casino Night. So bring your money because we have some really cool gifts to win!

We will be attending the NBC picnic June 4th, so if you haven't donated to the Viking Basket there is still time. There are a few spots still open for Labor Day at Bremerton. If you need one, let me know so I can add you on the call in list.

I am still working on Carla's Commodore Ball on Oct. 8th. If you want to be on the committee, just let me know.
Safe Cruising,

From VYC Historian – Peggy Claar

Hi everyone!

I am sorry for any frustration my little experiment has caused with the Picasa web album. I am working on getting pictures transferred to a new website that I can set up with everyone with access rights. Stay tuned for further instructions and disregard previous instructions—they do not work!

Regardless of website, I will start bringing my computer to every General Meeting, cruises and events I can go to this year. You can bring your camera and USB cable or SD card and I can transfer pictures directly from your camera onto my computer then upload the pictures to the website later. That will be a lot easier for everyone.

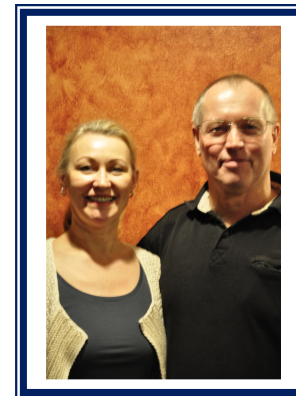

Thanks for keeping up the good shutter bug work!

Tacoma – water rescue exercise

The US Coast Guard is establishing a temporary safety zone on waters of East Passage, Tacoma, Washington for a regional water rescue exercise on June 9 from 7:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. 76 Fed. Reg. 23708 (April 28, 2011).

USCG – revised passenger weight standards

The US Coast Guard issued guidance for implementation of the new Assumed Average Weight Per Person (AAWPP) with respect to existing passenger vessels. Effective December 1, 2011, the AAWPP for use in determining the maximum number of persons permitted on a vessel will be 185 pounds. Previously, the assumed weight in most situations was 160 pounds.

Increase legislative awareness regarding unfairness of watercraft excise tax:

One of our educational endeavors during the Session involved raising awareness of the unfairness surrounding the watercraft excise tax. In the late 1990s, when the Motor Vehicle Excise Tax (MVET) and related excise taxes were repealed through a voter-passed initiative (I-695) and subsequent legislative codification of 695, the only excise tax left intact was the watercraft excise tax. Boaters pay an estimated $35 million a biennium in watercraft excise tax; no other recreational groups pay such a tax. While the state's $5.3 billion operating budget shortfall made 2011 a very challenging year to attempt repeal of the watercraft excise tax, we did use a number of sit-down meetings, and the Feb. 15 RBAW Legislative Day reception, as forums to speak to the unfairness. This tax obligation also was used as further fuel to retain the Recreation Resource Account funding. I want to particularly thank Chuck Gould of the RBAW Board for his work and effort on this issue.

New Orca Whale Boating Restriction

Vessel Regulations to Protect Puget Sound Killer Whales

NOAA Fisheries issued new rules today on vessel traffic, aimed at protecting Southern Resident killer whales in Washington's Puget Sound. These charismatic marine mammals, popular with tourists, whale-watch operators and the general public, were added to the Endangered Species list in late 2005. & #8232;& #8232;

The Southern Resident population peaked at 97 animals in the 1990s, and then declined to 79 in 2001. It has seen slow growth since then, and now stands at an estimated 86 killer whales, about half of which are sexually mature. Scientists have identified the major threats facing the population as a shortage of its preferred prey of Chinook salmon, disturbance from vessels, and water pollution.

& #8232;& #8232;The new rules prohibit vessels from approaching any killer whale closer than 200 yards and forbid vessels from intercepting a whale or positioning the vessel in its path. This doubles the current approach distance of 100 yards.

The rules go into effect in early May and apply to all types of boats, including motor boats, sail boats and kayaks, in Washington's inland waters.& #8232;& #8232;Exemptions to the rules for safety include vessels actively fishing commercially, cargo vessels traveling in established shipping lanes, and government and research vessels.

& #8232;& #8232;The whales, which depend on their highly sophisticated natural sonar to navigate and find food, can be affected by underwater noise from boats and disturbed by vessels, including non-motorized ones, that approach too close or block their paths. The agency's killer whale recovery plan, released in early 2008, calls for actions to reduce disturbance from vessels.& #8232;& #8232;

When the regulations were originally proposed in July 2009, they included a half-mile wide no-go zone along the west side of San Juan Island from May 1 through the end of September, where vessels were prohibited. Because of the extensive responses that were received during the public comment period, the final regulations do not include the no-go zone, and NOAA Fisheries will instead continue to gather information to consider the concept in future rulemaking.

Message from Recreational Boating Association of Washington (RBAW)

State Parks has advised RBAW that after further review of the mooring buoy situation at Blake Island State Park they are going to revise the length restrictions for the buoys. Right now the restriction is at 36 feet maximum boat size on all buoys at Blake Island.

A few of the buoys (2 or 3) on the Southwest corner of the Island will still be restricted to a maximum boat length of 36 feet. However the length restriction on the balance of the buoys will be increased back up to 45 feet.

Normal rafting restrictions will remain the same. The Parks web-site and information tape message will be revised to reflect the change.

Parks will continue to monitor the buoy losses that were the original cause for the more restrictive mooring lengths.

The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) promulgated regulations to prohibit vessels from approaching within 200 yards of killer whales and from positioning vessels in the path of killer whales in inland waters of Washington State. The regulations come into effect on May 16. 76 Fed. Reg. 20870 (April 14, 2011).

National Boating Federation

Removing the "lid" on non-highway fuel taxes – SB 5867/HB 2012: RBAW strongly supported these bills, but they were introduced very late in Session and never received a hearing or any serious consideration.

They remain possible to resurrect for the 2012 Session, however. In short, under current law, of the 38 cents in fuel tax paid by boaters and other "non-highway" users of that fuel, 23 cents goes to their various dedicated accounts, and the rest goes into the Motor Vehicle fund for general transportation use. Under 5867/2012, the 23-cent 'lid' would be removed and an estimated $17.5 million/biennium would be shifted to the dedicated non-highway accounts. If the Washington State Department of Transportation is to agree to this, it will take a "new revenue" package for transportation.

Phasing out copper-bottomed paint on vessels 64 feet and under sold/distributed in the State of Washington – SSB 5436: RBAW supported this proposal promoted by the NW Marine Trade Association. NMTA promoted the bill as a pro-active way to get out ahead of the issue. 5436 has passed both the Senate and House and is awaiting the Governor's signature.

SB 5372 – exempting sales tax requirements for boat sales prices above $300,000: This bill was pursued by the NW Yacht Brokers' Association (NYBA), but never received a hearing. RBAW did not support it.

Non-resident vessel permits ("cruising permits") and taxation – HB 1904: This bill pursued by the NMTA received a hearing, but never went any further.

Penalties for those who intentionally abandon derelict vessels – SSB 5271: This RBAW-supported legislation has cleared both the House and Senate and awaits the Governor's signature.

SB 5134 – lowering the excise tax on historic vessels from ½ percent to ¼ percent: This RBAW-supported bill had a hearing in Senate Transportation, but did not proceed any further.

Report to NBF from the International Boating & Water Safety Summit

During the period 6 to 9 March 2011, I attended and represented NBF at the 2011 IBWSS Conference at the Marriott Hotel, Savannah, Georgia.

As in preceding years, the IBWSS Conference was outstanding with a very large attendance of recreational boating stakeholders, lots of good information presented, and excellent exchanges between attendees.

Perhaps the most valuable outcome of my attending was the opportunity to network and renew friendships with representatives of the USACE, NOAA, BOATUS Foundation, ACA, CPS, NASBLA, NSBC, BSA, USPS, and others.

During these interactions, I was able to stress the role and importance of NBF and its work in supporting the recreational boaters and all recreational boating stakeholders on some of the most critical issues facing us today and in the future. These included in depth discussion on the use of ethanol fuel and the EPA "Listening Sessions." On ethanol, I emphasized the NBF's active opposition to E-15 and its strong concerns over the safety of E-10 and degradation of fuel tanks & lines, etc. I followed up on my previous discussions with the American Sailing Association concerning their basic courses and the need and ways to gain NASBLA approval. I met with the NWSC and agreed to support the signing of a MOU with NBF and areas that we might mutually benefit. I discussed the need for the USCGAUX to participate in the "On water training" with their NACO and suggested several innovative approaches that might gain CG approval. I discussed Florida's actions re-anchoring with representatives from US SAIL, BOATUS, Florida Fish & Game, and members of the Florida Advisory Board and promised NBF support as needed to reduce the unwarranted effects on recreational boaters. I suggested to the CG Office of Boating Safety that along with the need for PFD wear that they consider requiring Type 4 PFDs on all vessels as appropriate. I feel this might help to reduce drownings. I expressed to NSBC/NWSC that NBF was considering hosting a panel discussion at next year's summit – topic to be determined.

Below I have listed some major items brought up at the conference; however, one can soon go to <http://www.WaterSafetyCongress.org> for presentations & full reports.
